Wide offer of Print Design...

A large number of Print Studios has already joined the show and we are waiting for few others to confirm.

.British Print Studios are internationally appreciated for their creativity and for being one step ahead on fashion trends. Print Design has always been an important part of TLTF and some of the studios are with us since the very beginning, taking part at TLTF and at The London Print Design Fair in March and October.

This is the perfect opportunity to meet them all under the same roof!
